

After section 61, add another section, to be designated as "62," and to read as follows:

62. The Mayor shall by virtue of his office see that the ordinances of the city are duly and faithfully executed. He shall appoint, subject to the confirmation of the City Council, all the officers of said city who are not made elective by the people or the City Council (except the City Treasurer, Collector and Police Magistrate, who shall be elected by the City Council and also excepting the Water Rent Collector and Superintendent and all other employees or officers of the Water Department who shall be appointed and be under the control of the Board of Water Commissioners hereinafter provided for.

"He shall annually, on the first Monday in May, report to the council, in writing, the general state of the city, with an accurate account of the monies received and expended, which report shall be published in each of such two newspapers in said city of opposite political faith, as shall be designated by the City Council, giving a full and particular statement of all receipts and disbursements. He shall have power to remove any of the officers, agents or servants by him appointed for neglect or violation of any duties pertaining to their respective offices, and shall appoint others in their stead, and shall report such removal and appointment to the City Council at its next regular meeting for its approval or disapproval; he shall have general supervision of the city and shall submit from time to time to the council such recommendations as he shall deem proper; he shall also, by virtue of his office, be chairman of the Trustees of the Sinking Fund, and of the Board of Health, and shall discharge all the duties pertaining to chairmanship, and he shall receive for his services an annual salary of five hundred dollars.

In section 63, after the word city, in line 38, insert the following: "Auction, bargain and bankrupt sales and all other kinds of business or commercial ventures to be carried on for a shorter period than one year, and pass all such ordinances as may be necessary to establish, maintain, govern and control a paid fire department in the city.